

Thomas Jefferson Center
FOR CONSTITUTIONAL STUDIES

Thomas Jefferson Center for Constitutional Studies invites you to attend the first seminar in the “Healing of America” Seminar Series:

God’s Hand in the Building of America

In this seminar, you will learn about the greatness of the American Founding Fathers and will see how they were indeed inspired of God. You will appreciate more than ever that the hand of God was clearly evident in the building of this great land.

It will also become evident that the God of heaven did not establish the first free people in modern times just to allow them to collapse into oblivion. Most importantly, you will understand that America really can be healed, and that the Founders’ dream can be renewed and realized.

The Healing of America seminar series includes four vitally important sessions:

God’s Hand in the Building of America
The Founders’ Charter of Freedom
The Unhinging of America – Attacks on the Charter of Freedom
Restoring the Charter of Freedom

These seminars will document events, legislation, and movement that have placed America in a precarious position. While we highly encourage you to attend all four seminars, you are welcome to attend any seminar as your schedule permits.
